

Where do I find Platforms in Jalapeno?

Platforms can be found in the Business Architecture module in Jalapeno and Navigate to Platform.

How do I add Platforms?

Platforms may be added individually or via bulk import.

To better understand how to use and manage trees within Jalapeno, view this guide.

To learn how to add and edit items within Jalapeno trees, view this guide.

To learn how to import items into Jalapeno grids and manage them in bulk, view this guide.

How do I add the Systems installed on the Platforms?

Navigate to the Model tab and head to the Detail sub-tab to access the properties and relationships for a Platform.

To better understand how to use this input page, view this guide.

To better understand how to relate existing items within Jalapeno, view this guide.

How can I show when a system was installed?

For information on creating, managing and viewing installations, refer to this guide.

